Box and Folder Breakdown

Physical Description:

This collection includes four copies of the book Agreeable Situations: Society, Commerce, and Art in Southern Maine, 1780 – 1830, Laura Fecych Sprague, editor (Kennebunk: The Brick Store Museum, 1987), and assorted materials generated by that publication.

Most notably the collection includes the photographs and their negatives of all illustrations in the book. Filed with each photo as well as in separate notebooks (by the institution which owns the object pictured and by category) are photocopies of each photograph and (on the back of each) a grid detailing the item's catalogue number, owning institution, the number of negatives, and any other pertinent information. Unless otherwise specified, each folder contains one 8" x 10" black/white photograph. All photography was by J. David Bohl, Boston.

The collection also includes the book's manuscript and other materials pertaining to the production and reception of the book.

PLEASE NOTE: Although copies of all of the photographs in this collection can be made (at the expense of the applicant), permission for such duplication and use of the photograph MUST be supplied to the Brick Store Museum by the institution which owns the object pictured. Please note also – original photographs and negatives WILL NOT BE LOANED.

The acquisition number for this collection is 87.I.40.1-5.
