

COLLECTION 106

John Tierney/John Wesley Coombs Collection

This collection is a companion to the John Wesley Coombs collection, Collection #105.

The collection was given to the museum by John Tierney, the author of Jack Coombs, A Life in Baseball. It is his collection of newspaper clippings, arranged by date, of the life, of John Wesley Coombs. Many of the clippings are duplicates of the clippings in Collection #105. The clippings range from September 2, 1906 to September 24, 1947. A separate volume is devoted to Coombs's period at Duke University, where he was the baseball coach from 1929 until 1952.

The collection is in eight binders and one box of large photographs. The collection has been given the number 2009.034.0001-0020. The last number is a copy of the book.
